JOHN WISE, A.M.,
PASTOR OF A CHURCH IN IPSWICH
Massachusetts Bay Colony

[Liberty about which Thomas Jefferson wrote, in Congress, in the Declaration of Independence, echoes from Pulpit & Pen of Christian Pastor John Wise - over 60 years earlier.]

“Democracy is Christ’s government in church and in State.”

“The first human subject and original of civil power is the people...and when they are free, they may set up what species of government they please. The end of all good government is to cultivate humanity and promote the happiness of all, and the good of every man in all his rights, his life, liberty, estate, honor, etc., without injury or abuse done to any.”

- Rev. John Wise, Chebacco Parish of Ipswich (Essex), 1710 - 1715

Declaration of Independence

Excerpts

In Congress, July 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. - That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, - That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness...

...And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.
